Please do not limit what is available on XM. XM is simply another method to provide media. Everyone still has their car radio and will listen to it when needed. Also please consider there are multiple ways to provide high speed data to portable devices and these devices have all the same access to the WEB as a normal PC. Fighting content providers instead of embracing XM.